

Indian Road Woods

North Branch of the Chicago River

Address or Nearest Intersection: N. Central Ave., just north of Indian Rd. and a half-mile south of Caldwell Ave.

Directions : Entrance is east of Central Ave. Park in either of the parking lots. From the parking lot walk down the hill. The river is behind the trees. There is a dirt path along the river.

Owner: Forest Preserve District of Cook County

Habitat Description: Nice woodland along the Chicago River.

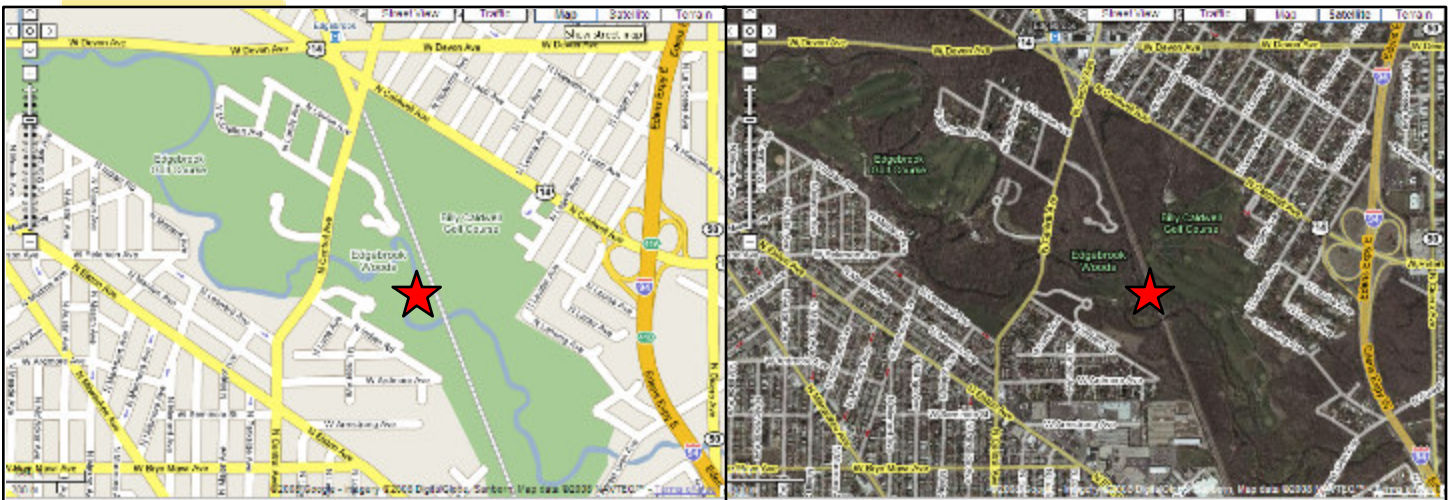

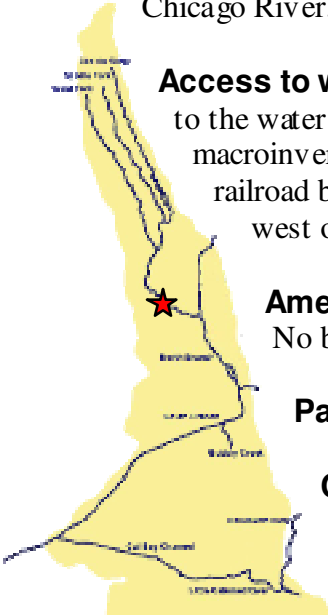

Access to water: There is good access to the water here. For sampling macroinvertebrates, walk along the river to the railroad bridge and wade into the river just west of the bridge.

Amenities: Shelters and picnic benches. No bathrooms.

Parking: Parking lots

Capacity: 60 students

Picnic Groves

INDIAN ROAD WOODS NORTH BRANCH DIVISION

